1996-1997 University Senior Research Fellow
Department of Chemistry, University of Western Sydney, Australia
1993-1996 Research Fellow/Senior Research Fellow
Department of Chemistry, University of Wollongong, Australia

TEACHING

Analytical Chemistry, Chemistry II, Environmental Chemistry, Pollution Chemistry.

RESEARCH

- Current research activities including:
 - Nanostructured functional materials for environmental remediation, energy conversion and storage
 - Environmental pollutant speciation, migration and impact assessment
 - Natural chemical products and toxicant identification and environmental toxicology
 - Water quality information collection and management systems
 - New environmental analytical method/instrument
- The research team consists of 55 research staff and RHD students
- Currently receives $1,565,000 p.a. national and international competitive research funds
- Has published over 120 refereed journal articles and gained over 40 international patents
- Has presented keynote lectures for over 20 international conferences over the past 5 years.
